DESCRIPTION

The 2011 Citroen C1 i VTR is a compact hatchback that offers a practical solution for everyday driving. This model is equipped with a 1.0 litre petrol engine, providing a balance of performance and efficiency suitable for both city streets and longer journeys. As a VTR trim level, it includes air conditioning to help maintain a comfortable cabin environment regardless of the weather outside.

This vehicle is designed with economy in mind, which makes it a sensible choice for those looking to manage their running costs. It achieves an impressive fuel economy of 63 mpg, helping to reduce the frequency of fuel stops. Furthermore, the car is positioned in a low insurance group and produces low CO2 emissions, which contributes to more affordable ownership costs compared to many other vehicles in its class.
