DESCRIPTION

This 2015 Nissan Pulsar dCi n-tec has been well maintained by only two owners from new. This hatchback is powered by a 1.5 litre diesel engine and comes in the well-equipped n-tec trim level. Inside, the cabin features dual zone climate control for personalised comfort and Bluetooth telephone integration to keep you connected on the move. Parking is made straightforward with the inclusion of a rear parking camera and parking assistance, while the intelligent key system allows for convenient keyless entry. The exterior is finished with LED signature headlights that provide clear visibility.

The Nissan Pulsar stands out for its practical design, offering a large boot space that makes it a versatile choice for daily errands or longer trips. It is an economical option for drivers, achieving an impressive 79 mpg and benefiting from low CO2 emissions. Furthermore, the vehicle falls into a low insurance group, which helps to keep running costs manageable. These combined attributes make it a sensible and efficient vehicle for those seeking a reliable hatchback that balances performance with everyday usability.
